FAIR THROGS MAY ENROLL AS BLOOD DONORS

The Adams county Red Cross will appeal to the throngs expected to visit the South Mountain fairgrounds this week to enroll as blood donors.

That announcement came today as Red Cross officials at Washington forwarded information from the Department of Defense that its supplies of dried human blood plasma have been gravely depleted by the demands of the Korean campaign.

Adams county seeks 3,000 donors for the regular visits of the bloodmobile from Baltimore which will begin Thursday, October 18. Up to now today 343 county men and women have enrolled as blood donors. Blood gathered in Adams county by the Red Cross will be used exclusively for the armed forces in national defense.

Nurses On Duty
Fair visitors will find a special table at the Red Cross first aid station on the fairgrounds where they may enroll to give blood. A nurse and a nurse's aide will be on duty at the first aid station throughout the fair and they will staff the blood donor booth. This evening Mrs. Richard Tawney and Mrs. Herta Vieland will be on duty.

To aid the Red Cross blood collection program, the Department of Defense has announced plans for an intensive promotional campaign that will open September 10 with programs over all the major television and radio networks. Gen. George C. Marshall and General Omar Bradley will head the appeal for Americans to cooperate in the Red Cross blood donor effort.

The blood donor center for Gettysburg will be at Christ Lutheran church, where the county center operated during World War II, but other county communities are planning to set up their own centers so that they may handle a single mobile unit visit to the county within their own respective communities. Littlestown and Biglerville are advancing such plans and other county towns who can enroll enough donors and provide suitable quarters may undertake the same project.

SINGLE CRASH ON LABOR DAY

Although accidents took a heavy toll across the nation over Labor Day, state police at the Gettysburg substation received only one accident report on Monday. That crash involved damage estimated at $930. One person was injured slightly.

The accident occurred at 8:35 p.m. Monday evening a half mile north of Hanover on the Cross Keys highway when a tractor-drawn farm wagon was struck by an auto which then struck another machine.

State police who are continuing their investigation of the mishap said that Conway T. Smith, 20, New Oxford R. 1, was driving the tractor north when the wagon he was pulling was hit by a machine operated by John L. Stock, 57, New Oxford R. 1. The Stock car then collided with a car driven by Mrs. Ruth Ellen Thoman, 20, Broadbecks R. 1. Mrs. Thoman was headed south.

Jane Thoman, aged 10 months, suffered a cut lip.

Damage to the Smith wagon was estimated at $80. Stock's car was damaged to the extent of about $400 in its double collision while damage to the Thoman auto was placed at about $450.

San Francisco, Sept. 4. (P)—Intensive behind-the-scenes negotiations today convinced American leaders, including President Truman, that they have the votes to defeat any Russian drive to disrupt the Japanese peace conference opening tonight.

But none could say just how long it will take to get a peace treaty signed.

Mr. Truman flew in from Washington yesterday with a new warning of possible Communist overtures in Korea, Asia or Europe. He will open the conference tonight with a major address at 7:30 p.m. (10:30 p.m. EDT).

RUSH WORK TO OPEN SOUTH MT. FAIR TONIGHT

Thousands of entries for the "South Mountain Fair" flooded into the fairgrounds near Arendtsville, early today in anticipation of the opening of the exposition this evening.

Trucks jammed the park through-out the day as commercial exhibitors brought in thousands of articles ranging from tractors to the smallest of household items. The "big show" was just about ready to start by late afternoon.

Housewives and farmers brought prize cattle, jars of jellies and dainty needlework. Committee members were rushed as they placed the displays in the various buildings of the fairgrounds.

Many Placed Monday

Many of the displays and exhibits were placed Monday night. W. Clayton Jester, assistant secretary of the fair association, said today "we could have had a fair Monday night—so much was here already."

Fair officials said the fair is better organized now than it has been in opening day for years. We are pleased with the great cooperation shown by everyone judging by all signs this should be the fair's most successful year.

But there were some complications which caused excitement today, the biggest being the placing of the wild animal cage for the entertainment program. The stage at the Memorial auditorium was too small for the animal cage and welders were summoned to reduce the size of the cage.

Erect Livestock Tent
Meanwhile the animals, lions, leopards, tigers, enclosed in cages on a huge trailer truck, added their voices to the din produced by the trucks, human beings and domestic animals at the fairgrounds.

To help take care of the livestock, a large tent was added today to permit placing of cows as the number of entries overflowed the permanent facilities.

Final entries in the fair—particularly oiled foods—will still be accepted at the fairgrounds Wednesday morning up to 9:45 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning the judges will begin their work of selecting the winners.

Season tickets at $1.50 admit the bearers to the grounds at any time during the fair.

Reds Expected To Launch New 400,000 Man Korean Offensive Backed By Soviet Puppet Army

Tokyo, Sept. 4. (P)—Truce negotiators exchanged accusing, unpromising notes today amid predictions a 400,000 man Red army may soon launch a new offensive in the Korean war.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters said the Communists have a total of 10 divisions available, backed by 1,000 planes, plus tanks and artillery. It added:

Large number of Caucasian Soviet puppet troops had moved into North Korea.

Have Puppet Air Force
It said Red troops from East Germany and other Soviet satellite areas have been pouring into North Korea for months.

A "puppet air force" is in the "Machuan" sanctuary across the Yalu river border from Korea.

Along the battle line fighting reached its greatest intensity in four months. Reds were reported to have re-equipped and resupplied at least 40 divisions about 400,000 men on the front with 30 more in reserve since now disrupted truce talks started July 10.

Chief truce negotiators exchanged six sharp notes today. Each accused the other of distortion. Neither proposed resuming armistice meetings, which the Reds broke off two weeks ago.

Deny Red Charges
The notes between U. S. Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy and North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il dealt solely with three asserted violations of the Kaesong neutrality zone in Korea. They were Red accusations.

Joy denied them all. He said Nam Il's "distortion" could "not transform allegations into realities."

Despite the bitterness of the notes a source close to the United Nations command said hope still existed among truce negotiators that armistice talks would be resumed.

However, the general view was heavy with pessimism. Responsible quarters said efforts to get truce talks going again appeared to have deteriorated under a welter of wasted words.

Nam Il sent three lengthy notes telling Admiral Joy "your consistent method of distorting facts and flat denial" was not a satisfactory answer to Red charges.

Repeats Accusations
He repeated Communist accusations that: (1) An Allied plane dropped fares Aug. 29 in the Kaesong area where truce talks were held; (2) South Korean troops killed a Red military policeman in the neutral zone Aug. 30; and (3) Allied troops killed one Communist and wounded another on the edge of the zone Aug. 19.

Admiral Joy's replies were sharp and curt. He again denied all three charges.

None of Joy's or Nam Il new notes added any fresh slants to the exchange of charges and denials.

Sources here have said repeatedly the Reds want to delay resumption of negotiations until after the Japanese peace treaty conference in San Francisco.

Reds Lose Ground
Then more hopeful informants suggested, Communists may be willing to stop the shooting along the present battle line. They considered such a refusal to do this. The Reds insisted on a cease-fire line in the 38th parallel.

Most of the battle line is north of the parallel. Allied troops have been in a man as five miles farther north during the truce lull.

GLIDDEN TOUR IN STATE BEGINS SEPTEMBER 23

A cavalcade of 100 of the most unique automobiles in America will rally forth from Pittsburgh later this month to recreate a daring journey of another day.

These will be vehicles of ancient vintage, participating in the annual revival of the old Glidden Tours, which were staged by the American Automobile Association in the early years of the century to popularize the newfangled horseless carriage. Gettysburgians will long remember the tour which originated here two years ago.

Mercedes Winton, Hupmobile, Maxwell Stanley Steamer, makes and models long gone from the American scene, will have their day again when their owners depart from Pittsburgh September 23, driving across the Pennsylvania and Maryland hills, over the modern Pennsylvania Turnpike and ending their jaunt in the Pocono mountains.

Starts In Pittsburgh
Details of this year's tour were announced this week by James Melton, the opera and concert singer who is president of the Antique Automobile Club of America, co-sponsor of the event along with the Veteran Motor Car Club of America and the American Automobile Association.

The original Glidden Tour were held from 1905 to 1913, under the auspices of the AAA, when few Americans believed the automobile was here to stay. Charles J. Glidden, wealthy automobile enthusiast, contributed a truck and provided a means of encouraging participation and attention.

The modern Glidden Tours Melton explained were begun after World War II by a group of antique car owners who are striving to preserve the early days of the automobile's early days. Cars up to and including 1925 were included in this year's tour and led by the market will be the 1905 Ford.

The tour starts at 11 a.m. at the Pennsylvania State Capitol in Harrisburg, Saturday, September 23. The tour will make the annual tour of the state and end in Gettysburg, Pa., Sunday, September 24.

Two-Day Stop
On Monday, September 25, the tour will stop in Bedford, Pa., where it will remain as the Bedford Springs hotel a popular (Continued on Page 2)

Officers of the company are: President, Claude Murren; secretary, Joseph Miller, and treasurer, Lester Strivig.

FAIR THRONGS MAY ENROLL AS BLOOD DONORS

The Adams county Red Cross will appeal to the throngs expected to visit the South Mountain fairgrounds this week to enroll as blood donors.

That announcement came today as Red Cross officials at Washington forwarded information from the Department of Defense that its "supplies of dried human blood plasma have been gravely depleted by the demands of the Korean campaign."

Adams county seeks 3,000 donors for the regular visits of the bloodmobile from Baltimore which will begin Thursday, October 18. Up to now today 343 county men and women have enrolled as blood donors. Blood gathered in Adams county by the Red Cross will be used exclusively for the armed forces in national defense.

Nurses On Duty

Fair visitors will find a special table at the Red Cross first aid station on the fairgrounds where they may enroll to give blood. A nurse and a nurses' aide will be on duty at the first aid station throughout the fair and they will staff the blood donor booth. This evening Mrs. Richard Tawney and Mrs. Herta Vieland will be on duty.

To aid the Red Cross blood collection program, the Department of Defense has announced plans for an intensive promotional campaign that will open September 10 with programs over all the major television and radio networks. Gen. George C. Marshall and General Omar Bradley will head the appeal for Americans to cooperate in the Red Cross blood donor effort. The blood donor center for Gettysburg will be at Christ Lutheran church, where the county center operated during World War II, but other county communities are planning to set up their own centers so that they may handle a single mobile unit visit to the county within their own respective communities. Littlestown and Biglerville are advancing such plans and other county towns who can enroll enough donors and provide suitable quarters may undertake the same project.

SINGLE CRASH ON LABOR DAY

Although accidents took a heavy toll across the nation over Labor Day, state police at the Gettysburg substation received only one accident report on Monday. That crash involved damage estimated at $930. One person was injured slightly.

The accident occurred at 8:35 o'clock Monday evening a half mile north of Hanover on the Cross Keys highway when a tractor-drawn farm wagon was struck by an auto which then struck another machine. State police who are continuing their investigation of the mishap said that Conway T. Smith, 20, New Oxford R. 1, was driving the tractor north when the wagon he was pulling was hit by a machine operated by John L. Stock, 57, New Oxford R. 1. The Stock car then collided with a car driven by Mrs. Ruth Ellen Thoman, 20, Brodbeck R. 1. Mrs. Thoman was headed south.

Jane Thoman, aged 10 months, suffered a cut lip. Damage to the Smith wagon was estimated at $80. Stock's car was damaged to the extent of about $400 in its double collision while damage to the Thoman auto was placed at about $450.

Man Walks Into Car; Is Badly Injured

State police identified the driver of the car as Douglas Cunningham, of Havertown, Pa. Police said Cunningham told them he was driving east on the Lincoln highway when Waganman ran into the path of his car.

Americans Have Votes For Treaty

San Francisco, Sept. 4 (AP)—Intensive behind-the-scenes negotiations today convinced American leaders, including President Truman, that they have the votes to defeat any Russian drive to disrupt the Japanese peace conference opening tonight.

But none could say just how long it will take to get a peace treaty signed.

Mr. Truman flew in from Washington yesterday with a new warning of possible Communist offensives in Korea, Asia or Europe. He will open the conference tonight with a major address at 7:30 p.m. (10:30 p.m. EDT).

The first working session will be held tomorrow morning. Russia's tactics are expected to be quickly disclosed at that time.

RUSH WORK TO OPEN SOUTH MT. FAIR TONIGHT

Thousands of entries for the various exhibits at the South Mountain Fair flooded into the fairgrounds, near Arendtsville, early today in anticipation of the opening of the exposition this evening.

Trucks jammed the park thoroughfare today as commercial exhibitors brought in thousands of articles ranging from tractors to the smallest of utensils. Tents sprang up throughout the fairgrounds and the "big show" was just about ready to start by late afternoon.

Housewives and farmers brought prize cattle, jars of jellies and dainty needlework. Committee members were rushed as they placed the displays in the various buildings of the fairgrounds.

Many Placed Monday

Fair officials said "the fair is better organized now than it has been on opening day for years. We are pleased with the great cooperation shown by everyone. Judging by all signs this should be the fair's most successful year."

But there were some complications which caused excitement today, the biggest being the placing of the wild animal cage for the entertainment program. The stage at the Memorial auditorium was too small for the animal cage and welders were summoned to reduce the size of the cage.

Erect Livestock Tent

Meanwhile the animals, lions, leopards, tigers, enclosed in cages on a huge trailer truck, added their voices to the din produced by the trucks, human beings and domestic animals at the fairgrounds.

To help take care of the livestock, a large tent was added today to permit placing of cows, as the number of entries overflowed the permanent facilities.

Final entries in the fair—particularly baked foods—will still be accepted at the fairgrounds Wednesday morning up to 9:45 o'clock.

At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning the judges will begin their work of selecting the winners.

Season tickets at $1.80 admit the bearers to the grounds at any time during the fair.

New Home Economist For Gas Company

During the summer Miss Overholt took an orientation course at the company's main office in Pittsburgh.

AUTOS COLLIDE

An automobile driven by Clayton E. Runk, Littlestown R. 2, and a motorcycle operated by Edward H. Runk, Brodbeck R. 1, were in a collision at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at High and Third streets, Hanover. The automobile was moving on Third street toward Hanover and its driver attempted to cross High street, police said. At the same time the motorcycle was traveling on High street and was about to be turned to the left into Third street. Damage to the two vehicles was estimated at $225.

Negro Fruit Picker Held On Arms Count

An Alabama negro fruit picker was in the Adams county jail today after signing a plea of guilty before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder this morning on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon without a permit.

State police, who arrested the man Monday, gave him the name as Willie Holmes, 21, of Tuskegee, Ala. They said he had a .38 caliber revolver which he had been shooting and carrying. Holmes, according to police, was employed on one of the M. E. Knouse farms near Bendersville.

$50 Damages In Local Accident

Damage estimated at $50 was caused at 3:15 o'clock Monday afternoon when a car operated by Mrs. Pauline Spicer, Gettysburg R. 4, backed into the car of Mrs. Ruth Mogg, Youngstown, Ohio, at Chambersburg and North Washington streets, according to a borough police report.

Police said Mrs. Spicer had stopped for a red light at the intersection, and Mrs. Mogg stopped her car back of the Spicer car. A Greyhound bus making the turn from Chambersburg street into North Washington street did not have room for the turn, police said, and Mrs. Spicer backed her car. It struck the Mogg car. There was no damage, police said, to the Spicer automobile.

Bendersville Store Robbed On Sunday

Reds Expected To Launch New 400,000 Man Korean Offensive Backed By Soviet Puppet Army

Tokyo, Sept. 4 (AP)—Truce negotiators exchanged accusing, uncompromising notes today amid predictions a 400,000 man Red army may soon launch a new offensive in the Korean war.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters said the Communists have a total of 70 divisions available, backed by 1,000 planes, plus tanks and artillery. It added: "Large number of Caucasian Soviet puppet troops" had moved into North Korea.

Have Puppet Air Force It said Red troops from East Germany and other Soviet satellite areas have been pouring into North Korea for months.

A "puppet air force" is in the "Manchurian sanctuary" across the Yalu river border from Korea.

Along the battle line fighting reached its greatest intensity in four months. Reds were reported to have re-equipped and resupplied at least 40 divisions, about 400,000 men, on the front with 30 more in reserve since now disrupted truce talks started July 10.

Chief truce negotiators exchanged six sharp notes today. Each accused the other of distortion. Neither proposed resuming armistice meetings which the Reds broke off two weeks ago.

Deny Red Charges

The notes between U. S. Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy and North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il dealt solely with three asserted violations of the Kaesong neutrality zone in Korea. They were Red accusations.

Joy denied them all. He said Nam Il's "distortion" could "not transform allegations into realities."

Despite the bitterness of the notes, a source close to the United Nations command said hope still existed among truce negotiators that armistice talks would be resumed.

However, the general view was heavy with pessimism. Responsible quarters said efforts to get truce talks going again appeared to have deteriorated under a welter of wasted words. Nam Il sent three lengthy notes telling Admiral Joy "your consistent method of distorting facts and flat denial" was not a satisfactory answer to Red charges.

Repeats Accusations

He repeated Communist accusations that (1) an Allied plane dropped flares Aug. 29 in the Kaesong area where truce talks were held, (2) South Korean troops killed a Red military policeman in the neutral zone Aug. 30, and (3) Allied troops killed one Communist and wounded another on the edge of the zone Aug. 19.

Admiral Joy's replies were sharp and curt. He again denied all three charges.

None of Joy's or Nam Il new notes added any fresh slants to the exchange of charges and denials.

Sources here have said repeatedly the Reds want to delay resumption of negotiations until after the Japanese peace treaty conference in San Francisco.

Reds Lose Ground

Then, more hopeful informants suggested, Communists may be willing to stop the shooting along the present battle line. They consistently have refused to do this. The Reds insisted on a cease-fire line along the 38th parallel.

Most of the battle line is north of the parallel. Allied troops have shoved it as much as five miles farther north during the truce lull.

SHERIFF GETS SEIZED "CIDER"

The Adams county court today called another "out" in the hard cider case which allegedly bothered Franklin township housewives with drinking husbands, with a play which went down in the score book as "Shultz to Schultz."

The defendant, sentenced last week, signed a waiver and forfeiture to the supply of liquor and hard cider, possession of which caused his arrest by Liquor Control board agents.

The court handed down an order transferring the wet goods from Dorsey A. Shultz, Franklin township, charged with their possession, to the custody of Dorsey J. Schultz, sheriff of the county.

The "seized" goods had been "sealed" at Shultz's home, near Cashtown.

STEELS LEAD ADVANCE

New York, Sept. 4 (AP)—Steels pulled the stock market ahead today with a sizable show of strength and activity. The steel group displayed gains of around a point at the outside while elsewhere the rise went a little beyond that mark at the best. Joining in the advance were coppers, rails, and the low-priced motion picture issues.

should realize by this time, government lending—which in spite of all the efforts at white-wash is largely dominated by political considerations—is often extremely unbusinesslike.

The Nevada Legislature recently passed and the Governor signed a law concerning future labor contracts which require that a labor union in an electoral district must have an electoral district in the Los Angeles Times said: "Either the closed or the union shop goes to labor officials a strangehold on a worker he must obey their orders or lose his livelihood. In effect it is a renege of slave system. Only when a man may join a union of his own free will or leave it when he disagrees with its aims or its methods can a union be made responsible to the rank and file members."

Is the school which your children attend safe from the danger of fire? And if the fire does strike, has every possible precaution been taken to make sure that those in the building will be quickly evacuated?

These are all very important questions and they can be easily answered. The National Board of Fire Underwriters has issued a booklet, "Fire Safety in Schools," which contains a list of 10 questions which every school should be able to answer.

1. Are the stairways protected by fire-resistant end doors?
2. Are there at least two exits, well separated on each floor?
3. Are all exits ways clear of obstructions?
4. Is the heating boiler or furnace in a separate fire-resistant room?
5. Are safe arrangements provided for the disposal of waste paper trash?
6. Are fire extinguishers practiced regularly?

If your school can answer YES to questions like these, you can breathe easier. If the answer is NO, then look out! Every year fire strikes in more than 2,000 schools—and in many cases death, injury and maiming of children follow. There is no greater community responsibility than making our schools safe—and keeping them safe.

Usually the Russians kept to themselves. At entertainments they gave no evidence of response to the entertainment, neither smiling nor applauding. Gromyko, Brown said, looked like he was posing all the time when out walking or at an entertainment.

In New York harbor Brown was waiting for his car to be unloaded and accidentally came upon a news conference being held by Gromyko. Holding his camera Brown acted like a newspaperman and joined the conference, taking pictures and watching the actions of the reporters.

The conference broke up when Gromyko issued a statement and one American reporter shouted, "Hey Gromyko how about going over that last part again?"

The Russian foreign minister looked at the reporter and walked silently away, Brown said.

CULBERTSON IS SPEAKER AT EMMITSBURG

Col. William S. Culbertson, former ambassador to Chile, was the principal speaker at the open air program held Sunday evening on the Emmitsburg Community field as a highlight of the Old Home Week celebration there. About 1,000 persons attended.

The program opened with the 75-voice community chorus, directed by William Simpson, singing "America" and the choral invocation. There were opening remarks by the Rev. Philip Bower, pastor of Elias Lutheran church; the Rev. Adam Grim, Methodist pastor, and the Rev. Charles G. Stouter, representing St. Joseph's Catholic church. The chorus sang two sacred numbers, "Lo, A Voice to Heaven Soundings" and "The Heavens Are Telling," and two popular numbers "Home on the Range" and "Stephen Foster Choral Fantasies."

Big Crowd Monday
Col. Culbertson's subject was "What Kind of a World Would You Like to Live In?" He emphasized the idea that "we have something to say and do about the world in which we live." He continued: "Superficially, we divide the world by geographic lines. But the conflict is deeper. There are just two worlds, the slave and the free." Describing these two worlds and the currents of thought that dominate each, he continued: "In this country we are still able to choose the world in which we want to live. If we don't choose others will choose for us. Choice is a serious responsibility. We must help make the world of our choice. Give meaning in your communities to the principles which our better selves are saying all the time are essential to our peace, prosperity and security."

The Old Home Week carnival had another very successful night with good weather and a large crowd. This evening Gene Hockenberry and His Knights will entertain.

In the turtle race Monday afternoon "Running Water," sponsored by the Emmitsburg Water company, placed first. "Stinky," jockeyed by Morris Zentz, Jr., and sponsored by the Mountain View farm, was second and third place went to "Diddy," handled by Becky Hays and sponsored by Sam C. Hays of the Swanee River Diaper service.

Saturday of June at Christ church grove, near Littlestown, as the time and place for their annual picnic meeting next summer.

Former New York State Judge Gay H. Brown, principal speaker at the convention told the group this morning. "Our lives are portraits which we ourselves paint — will they be beautiful, or caricatures; but more than that our lives are a painting filling in the outline put there when we are children by our families, friends and teachers. As teachers, how are we drawing the outlines for the portraits of the children we teach?"

Departmental meetings were held for the secondary principals and teachers, elementary principals and teachers, home economics teachers, vocational and GI teachers, vocal and instrumental teachers, and special education and school nurses.

Create One Military District In State

Fort Meade, Md., Sept. 4 (AP)—Second Army headquarters will establish a single military district headquarters for Pennsylvania at Indiantown Gap military reservation September 10.

Colonel George V. Sottong, acting chief in charge of two state offices, will be acting chief of the new establishment.

The new headquarters will combine the administrative activities carried on since 1946 by the Pennsylvania Military District office at Philadelphia, and the Western Pennsylvania Sub-district office at Pittsburgh.

Pennsylvania has been the only one of the seven states in the area to operate two military district establishments since 1946 when military districts for each state in the Second Army were set up.

Military authorities say they set up the single military district for reasons of economy and more efficient administration.

Congress Hopes To Adjourn By Oct. 1

Washington, Sept. 4 (AP)—The Senate stretched out its Labor Day holiday for one more day today before starting off on a legislative drive which leaders hope will bring adjournment around October 1.

A session was scheduled for today, but no business was on the docket and it promised to be only a token affair. The House, which is further along on the business of lawmaking, is on a three-week recess not due to end until September 12.

That means a postponement for another eight days or more of one of the major tasks remaining before the lawmakers can shut up shop for the year. That task: A compromise of differences in two versions of the Truman administration's foreign aid program for the year which started July 1.

President Truman asked for $8,500,000,000 for arms and economic aid to bolster the Western world against communism. The House voted an authorization of $7,499,750,000, the Senate one of $7,286,250,000.

Author Found Dead In Burned Home

Flemington, N. J., Sept. 4 (AP)—State police and fire officials said the body of author Louis Adamic was found this morning in his burned farm house at Milford, N. J., with a shotgun lying in his lap.

A bullet hole was in his head. Fire Chief Walter Ellis of Reigelsville, Pa., whose department covers fires across the Delaware river in New Jersey, said a barn and the house at Adamic's farm had been set on fire with kerosene-soaked rags. Milford is 10 miles west of here.

Ellis said the body was lying in an upstairs bedroom that wasn't touched by the fire. Neighbors who knew the author well definitely identified the body, Ellis added.

State Police Sgt. Martin Young of the Washington, N. J., barracks said the body definitely had been identified as that of Adamic.

Ellis said several rooms of the house were burned out, and that kerosene had been splashed everywhere. The fire was reported about 4:15 a.m. (EST).

A'S DUMP YANKS OUT OF LEAD AS BROOKLYN GAINS

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Philadelphia's carefree Athletics are going nowhere in the American league race but they are having a great deal to say which team will win the flag.

Continuing their role of "spoilers," Jimmy Dykes' seventh placers yesterday held New York to a split in their Labor Day double-header to dump the Yankees out of first place.

Taking advantage of the A's second game 3-2 win after the Yankees had topped the opener, 3-1, the Cleveland Indians regained first place by sweeping a pair from Chicago's White Sox, 5-3 and 6-1.

Giants And Phils Divide
The Tribe now has a half-game lead on the Yankees but must keep a wary eye out for Boston's unpredictable Red Sox, who whipped Washington twice, 3-2 and 8-4, to climb within four and a half games of the top. The Red Sox open a three-game series in New York tomorrow.

Brooklyn's Dodgers increased their first-place margin in the National league to six games over New York, defeating the Boston Braves twice by 7-2 scores while the Giants were dividing a pair with the Philadelphia Phillies. The Giants won the nightcap, 3-1, and Philadelphia had taken the opener, 6-3.

Elsewhere, the St. Louis Cardinals stretched their winning streak to seven straight with 4-1 and 7-1 triumphs over Cincinnati; Chicago and Pittsburgh split, the Pirates earning a seven-inning 4-3 win after the Cubs had captured the first game, 11-10, in 12 innings. Detroit's Tigers and the St. Louis Browns divided a twin-bill. The Tigers gained a 6-5 verdict in 13 innings only to have the Browns bounce back to win the second game, 3-2.

Shantz Beat Yanks
Little Bobby Shantz and big Bob Hooper combined to pitch Philadelphia's second-game triumph over the Yankees as the A's continued to have a lot of fun with the contenders. Shantz did not permit a score until he weakened in the seventh. Then Hooper took over and required the last eight Yankees to preserve the left-hander's 14th win.

It marked the third time in three weeks that the A's had shoved the Yankees off the top perch. They did it the first time on Aug. 12 with a double victory and again on Aug. 19 with a 15-1 walkover. Only last week they whipped the Indians twice in a row to knock them out of first place.

Johnny Sain, veteran right-hander, recently purchased from the Braves, made a brilliant Yankee debut, setting down the A's with five hits in the opener. A two-run homer by Hank Bauer proved the difference. A pair of singles by Ferris Fain were the key blows in the A's victory.

Big Day For Campanella
Bob Feller registered his 21st victory and Steve Gromek spun a brilliant three-hitter as the Indians battered five Chicago hurlers for 21 hits.

Roy Campanella, played despite two floating cartilages in his left elbow, cracked out six consecutive hits to lead the Dodgers to their holiday sweep. The husky catcher hit two homers, a double and single in the opener and batted in five runs. His homers, one a grand slammer, were Nos. 39 and 31 of the season.

Richie Ashburn homered with two on and Bill Nicholson followed suit with one man aboard to give the Phils a five-run fifth-inning and pitcher Robin Roberts his 18th victory. Second-game homers by Alvin Dark and Whitey Lockman gave the Giants a split.

Ted Wilks, making his first start, stopped the Cubs with six hits after Chicago had beaten the Pirates in the 13-inning opener on a bloop two-out single by Roy Smalley.

Banquet Tickets On Sale Tonight

A number of tickets will be sold at the door this evening when the Gettysburg Softball league holds its annual banquet at the Moose home on York street at 6:45 o'clock. The banquet is open to all men and boys.

Arch McDonald, Washington, D. C., three-time winner of the "Sporting News" award as the "Year's Outstanding Baseball Announcer," will be the speaker.

SEE SEDGMAN GETTING CUP

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 4 (AP)—For the first time since the national tennis championships were first played back in 1881, an Australian will win all probability except the big silver cup on the grass of the stadium late today.

Few of those who had sat through the tournament for the past 10 days could envision anything but a victory for Frank Sedgman, the Aussie ace over Vic Seixas of Philadelphia in today's final.

The feeling was that the tall, rosy crested Dais cup star had displaced too much speed, power and all-around class in each of his matches to be foiled now by a player who entered the tournament seeded only seventh on the American list and who was ranked only eighth in this country last year.

The 27-year-old Main Limer had, however, made a remarkable showing to this point, to matter what night strike him today. His four-set victory over No. 1 seeded Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J., in yesterday's semi-finals was somewhat tarnished by the fact that the Wimbledon champion scarcely could get around on an infected leg, but there were no stunts attached to his triumphs over Ken McGregor of Australia and Herbert Flam of Beverly Hills in his two previous outings.

Sedgman, for his part, simply ate Art Larsen alive, much to the surprise and chagrin of a packed crowd of 15,000 which had expected better of the slim left-hander who won the title a year ago. That one lasted only 48 minutes and the scores were 6-1, 6-2, 6-0. Seixas used up an hour and 17 minutes in administering his mercy shot to Savitt by 6-0, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Sports In Brief

BALTIMORE NINE COPS REGIONAL SOFTBALL TITLE

Williamsport, Sept. 4 (AP)—The strong right arm of a chunky hurler today has the Trenton Democratic club of Baltimore back on top of the Central Atlantic region softball contenders.

Giboy Wesolowski, an iron-man fireballer, hurled the Baltimore nine to four straight wins in the double elimination tournament here over the week-end, capping his performance with a three-hit win over the Arcade Pontiac team of Washington, D. C., 5 to 2 before a crowd of 2,200.

Thus the team won the right to represent the district for the second straight year at the softball World Series in Detroit, September 19 to 24.

They stayed on their throne by whipping the Bradford Pa. Derrick firemen, 1 to 0. Frankie Wilmington, Del. 3 to 2 and the Washington club twice.

In the women's division, the Pottstown, Pa. Carinaettes topped the honors behind the steady calculating batting of Jean Johns, who effectively scattered four hits in leading the winners to a 3 to 0 whitewash of Garfield's Washington, D. C.

Wesolowski was backed in his efforts by the power-hitting of Guy Ramsburg and Dick Jacobs. They tailed loser Abe Leviton for the important hits out of the 10 safeties he granted.

Wesolowski opened the scoring in the fourth with a double and scored on Herr Gorsbach's double and an error Ramsburg then hit a 2-2 pitch over the left field fence to add two more runs.

Smith hit a four-bagger for the losers in the home half of the fourth but the winners sewed up the game on a two-run double by Jacobs in the sixth.

In the women's final scoring, Miss Johns drove home the first run her team scored in the second inning on a single. An inning later she had two more runs to work with and held the Washington team at bay from there on in.

The Cardinals, who will represent the women in the Detroit tourney, beat the Washington team twice and the Baltimore Phils 13 to 4 and the Norfolk Naval base Waves, 9 to 2.

All-star game at Littlestown at 8 p.m.

Fairfield and Taneytown finished their Pen-Mar Baseball league schedule in a deadlock for first place as a result of winning their contests Monday afternoon. Two games were called off due to wet grounds.

Fairfield nosed out Westminster 8-7 on the latter's field Leonard Sites poked a triple and two doubles for the winners. J Sites hurled the first eight and one-third frames for Fairfield and was replaced in the ninth by G Weikert after Westminster pushed over three runs. The tying run was on third base when the final out was made.

Taneytown breezed through to an easy 13-1 victory at Cashtown. Sheaffer and Shank formed the winning battery while Don Bucher and Bill Bucher pitched for Cashtown with Herring catching.

Four games were postponed due to wet grounds during the Sunday-Monday program and today there was doubt any would be played, several managers pointing out the league officially ended with games on Monday.

Dr. Luther Beagle, Emmitsburg, president of the league, is on a several days trip and disposition of the postponed games as well as arrangements for the breaking of the tie for first place will probably be undecided until his return Thursday.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Sept. 4 (AP)—Among the football brochures in the morning mail is an orange-covered 16-page mimeographed job. It tells of a head coach whose teams have won 28 of 30 games in three years and of his five assistants. It gives the usual statistics about the stadium when seats 22,000 and where total attendance has fallen under 150,000 only three seasons since 1939. It even has a 40-seat press box and six radio booths.

The pamphlet almost goes on to tell of the school's 12-piece swing band, which has its own practice field and requires a "reasoning staff" of six to stage six new shows each football season. Sounds like a pretty big deal for anything but a big-time university, doesn't it?

But on the cover it says Massillon Washington high school, 1951. Those Oshtons don't wait until they get to college before they go big time.

PHOTO FINISH

A Columbus, O., photographer recently fixed up a window display for his snapper featuring a portrait of Governor Frank Lausche, who has been mentioned as a possible baseball commissioner.

Beside the photo, he placed a baseball. About a week later, when the news had percolated to the state house, the governor's secretary phoned a protest, asking: "Don't you think this is a bit premature?"

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Although Ivy league rules forbid starting football practice before Thursday Yale will get off ahead of the rest. Herman Hickman again has listed drills at 7 a.m.

Although the suggestion that professional boxers should wear headgear in contests has been greeted with jeers, the death of George Flores offers further proof that such protection is sensible, not silly.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)
The Hagerstown Braves lost a Labor Day doubleheader, 4 to 3 and 12 to 6 to the York White Roses, but it didn't bother them a bit. They already had tucked away the 1951 Interstate league championship.

A'S DUMP YANKS OUT OF LEAD AS BROOKLYN GAINS

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Philadelphia's carefree Athletics are going nowhere in the American league race but they are having a great deal to say which team will win the flag.

Continuing their role of "spoilers," Jimmy Dykes' seventh placers yesterday held New York to a split in their Labor Day double-header to dump the Yankees out of first place.

Taking advantage of the A's second game 3-2 win after the Yankees had copped the opener, 3-1, the Cleveland Indians regained first place by sweeping a pair from Chicago's White Sox, 5-3 and 6-1.

Giants And Phils Divide
The Tribe now has a half-game lead on the Yankees but must keep a wary eye out for Boston's unpredictable Red Sox, who whipped Washington twice, 3-2 and 8-4, to climb within four and a half games of the top. The Red Sox open a three-game series in New York tomorrow.

Brooklyn's Dodgers increased their first-place margin in the National league to six games over New York, defeating the Boston Braves twice by 7-2 scores while the Giants were dividing a pair with the Philadelphia Phillies. The Giants won the nightcap, 3-1, and Philadelphia had taken the opener, 6-3.

Elsewhere, the St. Louis Cardinals stretched their winning streak to seven straight with 4-1 and 7-1 triumphs over Cincinnati, Chicago and Pittsburgh split, the Pirates earning a seven-inning 4-3 win after the Cubs had captured the first game, 11-10, in 12 innings. Detroit's Tigers and the St. Louis Browns divided a twin-bill. The Tigers gained a 6-5 verdict in 13 innings only to have the Browns bounce back to win the second game, 3-2.

Shantzy Beat Yanks
Little Bobby Shantzy and Big Bob Hooper combined to pitch Philadelphia's second-game triumph over the Yankees as the A's continued to have a lot of fun with the contenders. Shantzy did not permit a score until he weakened in the seventh. Then Hooper took over and retired the last eight Yankees to preserve the left-hander's 14th win.

It marked the third time in three weeks that the A's had shoved the Yankees off the top perch. They did it the first time on Aug. 12 with a double victory and again on Aug. 19 with a 15-1 walkover. Only last week they whipped the Indians twice in a row to knock them out of first place.

Johnny Sain, veteran righthander, recently purchased from the Braves, made a brilliant Yankee debut, setting down the A's with five hits in the opener. A two-run homer by Hank Bauer proved the difference. A pair of singles by Ferris Fain were the key blows in the A's victory.

Big Day For Campanella
Bob Feller registered his 21st victory and Steve Gromek spun a brilliant three-hitter as the Indians battered five Chicago hurlers for 21 hits.

Roy Campanella, played despite two floating cartilages in his left elbow, cracked out six consecutive hits to lead the Dodgers to their holiday sweep. The husky catcher hits two homers, a double and single in the opener and batted in five runs. His homers, one a grand slammer, were Nos. 30 and 31 of the season.

Richie Ashburn homered with two on and Bill Nicholson followed suit with one man aboard to give the Phils a five-run fifth-inning and pitcher Robin Roberts his 18th victory. Second-game homers by Alvin Dark and Whitey Lockman gave the Giants a split.

Ted Wilks, making his first start, stopped the Cubs with six hits after Chicago had beaten the Pirates in the 13-inning opener on a bloop two-out single by Roy Smalley.

Sport Shorts

Chicago, Sept. 4 (AP)—King Ranch's 5-year-old Curandero made his second victory of the season the richest payoff for a mile race in history by winning the $159,150 Washington Park handicap before the largest Chicago crowd since 1946.

The son of Brazado-Ciencia, deftly ridden by Avelino Gomez of Havana, Cuba, nudged Oil Capitol by a nose yesterday to collect first prize of $113,950. This boosted his lifetime earnings to $238,650.

Eagles Mere, Pa., Sept. 4 (AP)—Gil Rothrock, of New Cumberland, Pa., utilized his sharp, stringing service to dethrone Ed Wesely, of Chey Chase, Md., as the men's singles champion in the 45th annual Eagles Mere Tennis tournament.

Rothrock, Cornell university sophomore, powered his way to the crown yesterday in straight sets, 6-4, 6-1, 6-1, blasting Wesely with service aces in the last two games.

The banquet is open to all men and boys. Arch McDonald, Washington, D. C., three-time winner of the "Sporting News" award as the "Year's Outstanding Baseball Announcer," will be the speaker.

SEE SEDGMAN GETTING CUP

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 4 (AP)—For the first time since the national tennis championships were first played back in 1881, an Australian will in all probability accept the big silver cup on the grass of the stadium late today.

Few of those who had sat through the tournament for the past 10 days could envision anything but a victory for Frank Sedgman, the Aussie ace, over Vic Seixas of Philadelphia in today's final.

The feeling was that the tall, rosy cheeked Davis cup star had displayed too much speed, power and all-around class in each of his matches to be foiled now by a player who entered the tournament seeded only seventh on the American list and who was ranked only eighth in this country last year.

The 27-year-old Main Liner had, however, made a remarkable showing to this point, no matter what might strike him today. His four-set victory over No. 1 seeded Dick Savitt of Orange, N. J., in yesterday's semi-finals was somewhat tarnished by the fact that the Wimbledon champion scarcely could get around on an infected leg, but there were no strings attached to his triumphs over Ken McGregor of Australia and Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills in his two previous outings.

Sedgman, for his part, simply ate Art Larsen alive, much to the surprise and chagrin of a packed crowd of 15,000 which had expected better of the slim left-hander who won the title a year ago. That one lasted only 48 minutes and the scores were 6-1, 6-2, 6-0. Seixas used up an hour and 17 minutes in administering his mercy shot to Savitt by 6-0, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2.

Sports In Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Tennis
Forest Hills, N. Y.—Frank Sedgman defeated Art Larsen and Vic Seixas defeated Dick Savitt to gain the finals in the National Tennis championships; Shirley Fry gained the women's final by ousting Mrs. Jean Walker-Smith of England but rain postponed the other semi-final with Maureen Connolly leading top-seeded Doris Hart by a set, 6-4.

62 Teachers Leave School; Want Wages

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 4 (AP)—Some 62 teachers from Cass township and Kulpmont school districts left their jobs today as the new term opened without their back salaries being paid.

Cass township in Schuylkill county and Kulpmont borough in Northumberland county each reported 31 teachers had arrived at school and immediately left when they were informed their salaries could not be paid.

Sylvester Kerwick, a spokesman for Cass township teachers, said they would return "when the salaries are paid." He estimated that $32,000 in back pay is owed the 31 teachers.

Albert W. Ross, Kulpmont supervising principal, said his district owes approximately $10,000 to the teachers to cover salaries for the month of May. He said there was no immediate prospects of raising the sum but said it would be discussed at an emergency meeting of the school board tonight.

BALTIMORE NINE COPS REGIONAL SOFTBALL TITLE

Williamsport, Sept. 4 (AP)—The strong right arm of a chunky hurler today has the Trenton Democratic club of Baltimore back on top of the Central Atlantic region softball contenders.

Gibby Wesolowski, an iron-man fireballer, hurled the Baltimore nine to four straight wins in the double elimination tournament here over the week-end, capping his performance with a three-hit win over the Arcade Pontiac team of Washington, D. C., 5 to 2 before a crowd of 2,200.

Thus the team won the right to represent the district for the second straight year at the softball World Series in Detroit, September 10 to 14.

They stayed on their throne by whipping the Bradford, Pa., Derrick firemen, 1 to 0, Frankie's Wilmington, Del., 3 to 2 and the Washington club twice.

Pottstown Girls Win
In the women's division, the Pottstown, Pa., Cardinals copped the honors behind the steady calculating hurling of Jean Johns, who effectively scattered four hits in leading the winners to a 3 to 0 whitewash of Garvin's Washington, D. C.

Wesolowski was backed in his efforts by the power-hitting of Guy Ramsburg and Dick Jacobs. They nailed loser Abe Leviton for the important hits out of the 10 safeties he granted.

Wesolowski opened the scoring in the fourth with a double and scored on Herr Gorschbath's double and an error. Ramsburg then hit a 2-2 pitch over the left field fence to add two more runs.

Smith hit a four-bagger for the losers in the home half of the fourth but the winners sewed up the game on a two-run double by Jacobs in the sixth.

In the women's final scoring, Miss Johns drove home the first run her team scored in the second inning on a single. An inning later she had two more runs to work with and held the Washington team at bay from there on in.

The Cardinals, who will represent the women in the Detroit tourney, beat the Washington team twice and the Baltimore Phillies 13 to 4 and the Norfolk Naval base Waves, 9 to 2.

All-star game at Littlestown at 8 p.m.

Fairfield and Taneytown finished their Pen-Mar Baseball league schedule in a deadlock for first place as a result of winning their contests Monday afternoon. Two games were called off due to wet grounds.

Fairfield nosed out Westminster 8-7 on the latter's field. Leonard Sites poked a triple and two doubles for the winners. J. Sites hurled the first eight and one-third frames for Fairfield and was replaced in the ninth by G. Weikert after Westminster pushed over three runs. The tying run was on third base when the final out was made.

Taneytown breezed through to an easy 13-1 victory at Cashtown. Sheaffer and Shank formed the winning battery while Don Bucher and Bill Bucher pitched for Cashtown with Herring catching.

Four games were postponed due to wet grounds during the Sunday-Monday program and today there was doubt any would be played, several managers pointing out the league officially ended with games on Monday.

Dr. Luther Beegle, Emmitsburg, president of the league, is on a several days trip and disposition of the postponed games as well as arrangements for the breaking of the tie for first place will probably be undecided until his return Thursday.

Quake Frightens Seaboard Residents

New York, Sept. 4 (AP)—An earth quake shook and frightened thousands of residents yesterday in a three-state region near New York, but there were no injuries and damage apparently was limited chiefly to cracked windows and broken chinaware.

Manhattan with its skyscraper buildings did not feel the quake, which occurred at 4:26:45 p.m., EST. A Columbia university seismologist described the quake as "a very large local earthquake" but could not determine its exact center.

The tremor shook a long but fairly narrow region of several hundred square miles from southern Connecticut, through southern New York state, and into northern New Jersey.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Sept. 4 (AP)—Among the football brochures in the morning mail is an orange-covered 16-page mimeographed job. . . . It tells of a head coach whose teams have won 28 of 30 games in three years and of his five assistants. It lists an 87-man squad and boasts of a tough schedule for 1951. . . . It gives the dual statistics about the stadium, which seats 22,000 and where total attendance has fallen under 150,000 only three seasons since 1939. It even has a 40-seat press box and six radio booths. . . . The publicist almost goes in to ecstasies about the school's 72-piece swing band, which has its own practice field and requires a "coaching staff" of six to stage six new shows each football season. . . . Sounds like a pretty big deal for anything but a big-time university doesn't it? . . . But on the cover it says Massillon Washington high school, 1951. . . . Those Ohioans don't wait until they get to college before they go big time.

A Columbus, O., photographer recently fixed up a window display for his shoppe featuring a portrait of Governor Frank Lausche, who has been mentioned as a possible baseball commissioner. . . . Beside the photo, he placed a baseball. . . . About a week later, when the news had percolated to the state house, the gov's secretary phoned a protest, asking: "Don't you think this is a bit premature?"

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
Although Ivy league rules forbid starting football practice before Thursday, Yale will get off ahead of the rest. Herman Hickman again has listed drills at 7 a.m. . . . Although the suggestion that professional boxers should wear headgear in contests has been greeted with jeers, the death of George Flores offers further proof that such protection is sensible, not silly. . . . The lightweight guards used by college boxers aren't cumbersome and might prevent such injuries.

Niles Jordan Gets Award
Righthander Jack Kirk pitched York to victory over Hagerstown in both games, which offered the fans more in the way of buffoonery than in serious baseball. However, York came through with the distinction of bettering the league's double play record for one season. A twin killing in the sixth inning of the opener was the White Roses' 176th of the year, one up on the record set by Lancaster in 1949. Just for extra measure, York added number 177 in the second game.

The talent Salisbury Athletics all but equalled another kind of record—for the number of games lost in a season. The A's wound up with a showing of 33 wins and 102 losses, one defeat short of the league record of the 103 games lost by the Allen standbys Salisbury is a remote 58½ games behind the champion Braves.

The league's "most valuable player" award, voted by the Interstate Sportswriters and Broadcasters association, went to Niles Jordan, southpaw hurler recently called up by the Philadelphia Phillies. Jordan, who pitched the Phils to a 2 to 0 victory over the Cincinnati Reds in his major league debut last week, compiled a 22-3 record with Wilmington. He won 52 votes, two more than the number cast for Bill Smith, outfielder-first baseman for Hagerstown. Third place went to Charley Neal, Lancaster second baseman.

The post season playoffs get under way tonight with Wilmington at Hagerstown and fourth place Sunbury at Allentown.

Xavier Institute opened Monday with Sisters Teresa, Maria, Mary Gabriel and Mary Alice in charge. Sister Maria takes the place of Sister Penboye who taught music last year.

Church Rededicated: The Mt. Joy Evangelical Lutheran church, Rev. W. G. Minnick, pastor, after extensive improvements, was rededicated on September 1st. The church was painted and penciled on the exterior and the interior neatly and beautifully frescoed. The pews were polished and other improvements made. Through the efforts of a committee, appointed by the pastor, which consisted of Messrs. F. S. Cromer, S. D. Reck, William Walker and William Kefauver, all the money necessary was collected before the work began. The ladies of the congregation, in connection with the Y.P.S.C.E., purchased four handsome oak collection plates and presented them to the congregation. The sermon was preached by Rev. E. J. Wolf, D.D., L.L.D., after which the church was solemnly dedicated to the worship and service of God by the pastor.

As the congregation was formed fifty years ago, semi-centennial exercises will be held next Sunday. The pastor will preach a historical sermon.

THE FRIENDLY HAND

I have no idea as to who invented, or initiated, the custom of shaking hands as an expression of good will and greeting. His name should be known, for he deserves his immortality! There is something electric and fine about the custom. Not only do people shake hands as a meeting or greeting, but they do so often, signifying their word as a bond between them.

The friendly hand in greeting, especially among men, is really an inspiring thing. There is such genuineness and cordiality to it. When General MacArthur was in Washington and met the editors there, I had the privilege of shaking hands with Mrs. MacArthur and the general, and it was a proud moment, for there was something great about the way they greeted people. I stood a short distance away, later, and watched each handshake. Each was characteristic of this noted pair.

There is always something of the man or woman that goes with their handshake, and when it is friendly, as it always should be, something stays behind. You can almost imagine the handshake of a Churchill, or any other prominent man, for a part of their personality is in it. I can never forget the handshake of Teddy Roosevelt. It was like an enthusiastic boy's so genuine and alive. The late Franklin Roosevelt had a different handshake. There was a certain charm to it as he took your hand and uttered a smiling remark.

The friendly hand does a great many things besides greeting. Often it gives a pat of encouragement on the back of one, significant of trust and cheer. It soothes brows in illness and does a multitude of kind acts that are never forgotten. I was in a small Nova Scotia town recently, and just as I parked my car, a gentleman stepped up, shook hands with me, told me his name and wanted to know if he could do anything for me, as he noted I was a stranger.

Would that there could be a friendly hand, grasped in sincere good will, among nations, rather than pointed guns with bitterness, hatred and tragic greed behind them!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Indestructible Nature"

AUTUMN FRAGRANCE
It must be coming time again!
On streets where happy people dwell,
Once more to greet home-coming men
There is a most delicious smell.
So fragrant is the atmosphere,
Although a passer-by I am,
I can detect while drawing near
Which mother has been making jam.

Crab apple jelly I can tell
From peach preserve upon the spot.
I learned to know them from their smell
When I was just a little tot.
And since the senses must be trained,
My mother taught such things to me.

She very carefully explained
Both caraway and savory.
We long retain what love has taught.
As past a little home I went
The other night, I'll swear I caught
The long lost mustard pickle scent.
'Twas chili sauce a step ahead;
Red currant jelly followed then.
'Oh, happy memory!' I said,
'It must be canning time again.'

MEXICAN GIVES $200,000 PARTY FOR 600 GUESTS

Venice, Italy, Sept. 4 (AP) — This historic city of lovers and assassins saw its biggest blow-out of half a century last night. A Mexican mystery millionaire set the mark with a $200,000 party at which guests were everything from lionskins to shrouds.

Dukes and counts trooped in by regiments, rubbing shoulders with the wealthy of three continents. But many of the top notables invited by dapper, monocled Don Carlos De Bestegui did not bother to come.

Those who did attend danced and wined the night away. But after it was all over, few of them knew much about De Bestegui, except that he has millions and seems to know how to spend them.

Father Was Ambassador
De Bestegui, who gave the lavish "housewarming" to open the palace he has restored on the fabled Grand Canal, is almost unknown in his native Mexico. His father, Miguel De Bestegui, was ambassador to Spain before the Mexican revolution began in 1910.

Don Carlos bought the palace two years ago for $500,000 and reportedly spent $6,250,000 modernizing and decorating it with a fortune in paintings and tapestries.

De Bestegui posted signs throughout the canal city inviting the "lower classes" to drop around and peer in at the festivities and maybe munch a little salami distributed by his servants.

They dropped around—one of the biggest crowds seen for years in this center of heavy unemployment and strong communism. When De Bestegui gave them a gay wave from his balcony, some cheered but more hissed. Several groups of youths chanted derisively, "Duce, Duce."

Inside the palace about 600 guests showed up.

Carabinieri were lined shoulder to shoulder in rows five deep on two sides of the palace. City police formed cordons for blocks to keep the crowd moving.

In the end there was no disorder. De Bestegui hastily discarded his plan of following the old 18th cen-

51 Girls Groom For Miss America Title

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 4 (AP) — Fifty-one pretty young women Monday started a busy week of grooming and contests that will lead one of them to the title of Miss America of 1952.

The young ladies—from 44 states, four large cities, Puerto Rico, Hawaii and Canada—register for the Miss America pageant today.

Official hostesses then will be assigned to handle all their outside contacts and see that they do not drink or smoke in public during the next week.

After five days of rehearsals, talent contests, photographs, hairdressing and wardrobe fitting, judges will pick a Miss America on Saturday evening.

Custom of handing out wine and cakes to the poor.

The only food and drink offered outside were two bottles of wine, some salami and two slabs of dried cod fish. They were placed as prizes atop a greased pole. One skinny Italian finally climbed it and got them.

Inside the palace the fabulously wealthy Aga Khan was one of the first to arrive in oriental potentate costume.

Dime store heiress Barbara Hut-ton, who has thrown a few pretty elaborate parties of her own, showed up in a $15,000 lace and black sequin "knight's" dress.

American film star Gene Tierney arrived in a $16 peasant costume.

Christian Dior, Paris fashion creator, came dressed as a giant. The Viscountess Noailles of Paris wore a lion skin and Lady Alexander Met-calf of London appeared as Cleopatra.

Hollywood's Orson Welles dressed as Othello. One masked guest arrived in a black-draped gondola and was carried in, dressed in a shroud.

ORPHAN BABY IS A COUNTESS

Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 4 (AP) — Sweden's tiny Cinderella countess arrived here today, and scarcely noticed the hubbub she created.

Three-year-old Monika Heissler — now she is Countess Monika Bernadotte — was more interested in trying to grab the cap from a Red Cross nurse's head than she was in the excited delegation of reporters, photographers and officials at the railroad station.

The child, born of poor Austrian parents, left her Salzburg home yesterday to become the foster daughter of Count Karl Johann Bernadotte, son of Sweden's king.

The count and countess saw her when they attended the Salzburg music festival last month, were captivated by her and decided to adopt her. She met them through the Venezuelan minister to Stockholm, who is active in a "Save the Children" campaign in Europe.

The girl is one of a group of 19 orphans, deserted children and sons and daughters of displaced persons, all of whom are being adopted by Swedish families. Five are Austrian and 14 are German.

Monika's new parents were not at the station to greet her. They are still abroad and will return the end of this month. Until then Monika will remain at a save-the-children home in Djursholm, a garden city a few miles north of Stockholm.

Emmitsburg HISTORIC TOUR AT EMMITSBURG

About 50 persons took the historic tour Monday afternoon that was a part of Emmitsburg's Old Home Week celebration. The group included James Shields, Harrisburg, fifth generation descendant of William Shields, early settler of the Emmitsburg area whose grave was visited on the tour.

Points visited on the tour included the old Shields homestead, Mt. St. Mary's college, Rainbow lake, the old Taylor house, the Shields grave and the tomb of Mother Seton.

James Shields was born at the Shields homestead, three miles from Emmitsburg on the banks of Turkey run on the left fork of the Eyer's Valley road.

Rainbow lake is located in the mountains near the source springs of Turkey run and is the source of Emmitsburg's water supply. Samuel Hays, president of the Emmitsburg Water company which owns and operates the lake, told the group the lake's dimensions are 400 by 1,000 feet and up to 18 feet deep. He said it holds a three-month water supply.

The tour saw the old stone marking the grave of William Shields in what once was known as Shields field, near the site of the old Shields home. The inscription on the marker identifies Shields as a native of County Armagh, Ireland, born in 1728 and died in 1797. He is described in the epitaph as a surveyor, patriot and a Revolutionary war major. The Daughters of the American Revolution have placed a marker at the Shields grave.

was in a small Nova Scotia town recently, and just as I parked my car, a gentleman stepped up, shook hands with me, told me his name and wanted to know if he could do anything for me, as he noted I was a stranger.

Would that there could be a friendly hand, grasped in sincere good will, among nations, rather than pointed guns with bitterness, hatred and tragic greed behind them!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Indestructible Nature"

Just Folks

AUTUMN FRAGRANCE
It must be canning time again!
On streets where happy people
dwell,
Once more to greet home-coming
men
There is a most delicious smell.
So fragrant is the atmosphere,
Although a passer-by I am,
I can detect while drawing near
Which mother has been making jam.

Crab apple jelly I can tell
From peach preserve upon the spot.
I learned to know them from their smell.

When I was just a little tot,
And since the senses must be trained,
My mother taught such things
to me.
She very carefully explained
Both caraway and savory.

We long retain what love has taught.
As past a little home I went
The other night, I'll swear I caught
The long lost mustard pickle scent.

'Twas chili sauce a step ahead:
Red currant jelly followed then.
'Oh, happy memory!' I said,
'It must be canning time
again.'

MEXICAN GIVES

$200,000 PARTY FOR 600 GUESTS

Venice, Italy, Sept. 4 (AP) — This historic city of lovers and assassins saw its biggest blow-out of half a century last night. A Mexican mystery millionaire set the mark with a $200,000 party at which guests wore everything from lionskins to shrouds.
Dukes and counts trooped in by regiments, rubbing shoulders with the wealthy of three continents. But many of the top notables invited by dapper, monocled Don Carlos De Bestegui did not bother to come.
Those who did attend danced and wined the night away. But after it was all over, few of them knew much about De Bestegui, except that he has millions and seems to know how to spend them.

Father Was Ambassador
De Bestegui, who gave the lavish
"housewarming" to open the palace
he has restored on the fabled Grand Canal, is almost unknown in his native Mexico. His father, Miguel De Bestegui, was ambassador to Spain before the Mexican revolution began in 1910.

Don Carlos bought the palace two years ago for $500,000 and reportedly spent $625,000 modernizing and decorating it with a fortune in paintings and tapestries.

De Bestegui posted signs throughout the canal city inviting the "lower classes" to drop around and peer in at the festivities and maybe munch a little salami distributed by his servants.

They dropped around—one of the biggest crowds seen for years in this center of heavy unemployment and strong communism. When De Bestegui gave them a gay wave from his balcony, some cheered but more hissed. Several groups of youths chanted derisively, "Duce, Duce."

Inside the palace about 600 guests showed up.

Carabinieri were lined shoulder to shoulder in rows five deep on two sides of the palace. City police formed cordons for blocks to keep the crowd moving.

In the end there was no disorder.
De Bestegui hastily discarded his plan of following the old 18th cen-

51 Girls Groom For Miss America Title

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 4 (AP) — Fifty-one pretty young women Monday started a busy week of grooming and contests that will lead one of them to the title of Miss America of 1952.

The young ladies—from 44 states,
four large cities, Puerto Rico, Hawaii and Canada—register for the Miss America pageant today.

Official hostesses then will be assigned to handle all their outside contacts and see that they do not crank or smoke in public during the next week.

After five days of rehearsals, talent contests, photographs, hairdressing and wardrobe fitting, judges will pick a Miss America on Saturday evening.

Century custom of handing out wine
and cakes to the poor.

The only food and drink offered outside were two bottles of wine, some salami and two slabs of dried cod fish. They were placed as prizes atop a greased pole. One skinny Italian finally climbed it and got them.

Inside the palace the fabulously wealthy Aga Khan was one of the first to arrive in oriental potentate costume.

Dime store heiress Barbara Hutton, who has thrown a few pretty elaborate parties of her own, showed up in a $15,000 lace and black sequin "knight's" dress.

American film star Gene Tierney arrived in a $16 peasant costume.

Christian Dior, Paris fashion creator, came dressed as a giant. The Viscountess Noailles of Paris wore a lion skin and Lady Alexander Metcalfe of London appeared as Cleopatra.

Hollywood's Orson Welles dressed as Othello. One masked guest arrived in a black-draped gondola and was carried in, dressed in a shroud.

ORPHAN BABY IS A COUNTESS

Stockholm, Sweden, Sept. 4 (AP) — Sweden's tiny Cinderella countess arrived here today, and scarcely noticed the hubbub she created.

Three-year-old Monika Bernadotte
— now she is Countess Monika Bernadotte — was more interested in trying to grab the cap from a Red Cross nurse's head than she was in the excited delegation of reporters, photographers and officials at the railroad station.

The child, born of poor Austrian parents, left her Salzburg home yesterday to become the foster daughter of Count Karl Johann Bernadotte, son of Sweden's king.

The count and countess saw her when they attended the Salzburg music festival last month, were captivated by her and decided to adopt her. She met them through the Venezuelan minister to Stockholm, who is active in a "Save the Children" campaign in Europe.

The girl is one of a group of 19
orphans, deserted children and sons and daughters of displaced persons, all of whom are being adopted by Swedish families. Five are Austrian and 14 are German.

Monika's new parents were not at the station to greet her. They are still abroad and will return the end of this month. Until then Monika will remain at a save-the-children home in Djursholm, a garden city
a few miles north of Stockholm.

Emmitsburg HISTORIC TOUR AT EMMITSBURG

About 50 persons took the historic tour Monday afternoon that was a part of Emmitsburg's Old Home Week celebration. The group included James Shields, Harrisburg, fifth generation descendant of William Shields, early settler of the Emmitsburg area whose grave was visited on the tour.

Points visited on the tour included
the old Shields homestead, Mt. St.
Mary's college, Rainbow lake, the old Taylor house, the Shields grave and the tomb of Mother Seton.

James Shields was born at the Shields homestead, three miles from Emmitsburg on the banks of Turkey run on the left fork of the Eyer's Valley road.

Rainbow lake is located in the mountains near the source springs of Turkey run and is the source of Emmitsburg's water supply. Samuel

Hays, president of the Emmitsburg Water company which owns and operates the lake, told the group the lake's dimensions are 400 by 1,000 feet and up to 18 feet deep. He said it holds a three-month water supply.

The tour saw the old stone marking the grave of William Shields in what once was known as Shields field, near the site of the old Shields home. The inscription on the marker identifies Shields as a native of County Armagh, Ireland, born in 1728 and died in 1797. He is described in the epitaph as a surveyor, patriot and a Revolutionary war
major. The Daughters of the American Revolution have placed a marker at the Shields grave.

ization of fire company auxiliaries was suggested by Henry J. Adams, Centennial, a past president of the association. No action was taken.

The question of donations to other organizations was presented by Richard Finkboner, Gettysburg, who said the matter was to be discussed by the Gettysburg fire company at a meeting in the near future.

"All fire companies in the county get their money from donations, bazaars and carnivals," Finkboner said. "We don't feel it is right for us to solicit money, give donations to other organizations and then have them go to the same doors where we got our money."

Mr. Myers pointed out that fire companies solicit funds primarily for fire fighting. After additional discussion, the matter was tabled until the quarterly meeting in October.

Appoints Memorial Committee There were no officers for the November memorial service, and President Bretzman, on the suggestion of Ivan Gulden, Cashtown, appointed a committee to contact the Arendtsville fire company and the South Mountain Fair association relative to holding the service in the memorial auditorium at the fairgrounds.

Mr. Gulden was named chairman of the committee. Other members are J. Calvin Lerew, East Berlin, and Bruce Wetzel, Cashtown.

There was considerable discussion on a proposal to hold the memorial service in connection with the annual convention. Opposition developed on the theory that the convention did not provide the proper background and that a church is the better place for the memorial. The matter was tabled until the quarterly meeting.

New officers were installed at the afternoon session by J. Faber Wildasin, President Bretzman named Edward G. Loeffel, Littlestown; George D. March, Gettysburg; Leon Leppo, McSherrystown, as members of the 1952 yearbook committee, with Loeffel as acting chairman; Paul Athoff, Littlestown, was appointed chairman of the publicity committee, and John Murren, Centennial, chairman of the fire prevention committee.

President Bretzman was elected delegate to the state convention to be held October 2 and 3 at Johnstown, with J. Calvin Lerew as alternate. John Murren was named delegate, and Leon Leppo alternate, to the Firemen's Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Judge Sheely Speaks Judge Sheely, after noting the passing of many old faces at the convention, complimented Hampton firemen on their new building, and devoted most of his talk to a discussion of civil defense.

"The whole concept of civil defense," he said, "is the organization of the community to take care of emergencies, and this is the same concept that each fire company has been operating under for years. We have in practically every community in the county a fire company which can form the nucleus for civil defense. If we are told what we need and why we need it we will provide it.

"What we need most today is people at the top who know what the small organizations can do, and who will make use of existing organizations rather than to set up new ones. It is easier to coordinate the existing facilities."

Says State Lags Judge Sheely said that Pennsylvania is behind on civil defense. "The community looks to the state, the state looks to the nation," he said, "and little has been done. If the danger is real, and I believe it is, we had better get together. Governor Pine asked for $25 million and it looks as though he will get no more than $2 million for civil defense. The federal government will not have money for the states. Philadelphia alone has asked for $10 million, so you see, it is not going to add up. We must begin at the community level."

A band, two drum and bugle corps and 23 fire companies participated in the parade, which moved promptly at 4 p.m., disbanding at the carnival grounds adjacent to the fire hall.

Taking part in the parade, in their order in the line of march were: automobile carrying parade judges; fire truck of the Vigilant fire company of Emmitsburg; Manchester, Md. fire truck; two York Springs trucks; Centennial and East Berlin apparatus; marching members of the Liberty fire company of East Berlin; Barlow, Arendtsville, Aspers and Fairfield apparatus; East Berlin drum and bugle corps; Parkville firemen and truck; Littlestown, Bonneauville and Conewago fire trucks; Mason Dixon Post, VFW, drum and bugle corps, Littlestown; Irishtown marchers and two Irishtown fire trucks; apparatus of Union fire company, Benderville, New Oxford, and three Gettysburg trucks, including the new $16,000 Mack pumper; McSherrystown truck, Acme band and choir of Emigsville; Alert fire company truck of Manchester township, Pa.; two Cashtown trucks; Abbottstown truck, apparatus of the Citizens fire company of Mt. Holly Springs and the Hampton truck.

Award Parade Prizes The Irishtown fire company won $50 as the best appearing uniformed fire company in line with apparatus and music; East Berlin received $25 for the best appearing company without music; Manchester, Md., $25 for the best equipped and best appearing apparatus; and Emmitsburg $15 for the fire company coming the longest distance.

The parade judges were Judge Sheely, and Mrs. C. T. Ziegler, Gettysburg, and David Ginsberg, Hyattsville, Md.

NATIONAL GUARD

is the father of a son and daughter.

Mess Sergeant Samuel Kessel, who is cook at Huber hall here as well as mess sergeant for the national guard unit, has been a member of the local guard "off and on" since 1938. He served with Company E, the pre-World War II unit here, and as mess sergeant of that outfit won the best mess sergeant plaque at Indiantown Gap in 1941. He served with the 28th division throughout World War II and with the exception of two years has been with the local company since its reorganization after the war.

Capt. John W. Deardorff, commanding officer of the unit, at its regular meeting in the armory Monday night paid tribute to all the company members for their work during the encampment. He particularly praised the mess sergeants for their work in feeding 175 visitors in addition to the regular company members at an "open house" for wives, families and friends of the members held at Indiantown Gap August 25.

SAYS NEW TAX POWERS NEEDED

Harrisburg, Sept. 4 (AP)—Speaker Herbert P. Sog (R-Elk) said today Pennsylvania's 77-year-old constitution is "sorely limiting" the legislature's quest for new taxes.

"The constitutional limitation that taxes must be uniform upon the same class of subjects has confined our discussions a great deal," he told a newsman.

Sog made the statement as a special eight-man House committee renewed talks on the drafting of a $138,000,000 tax program as a substitute for the discarded plan for a one-half of one per cent income tax. As an example, he cited the committee's discussion of a tax on unincorporated businesses at an opening conference last week.

The committee would have liked to fix a certain cut-off point to tax the earnings of firms which have not incorporated themselves and thereby escape payment of the commonwealth's five per cent corporate net income tax, he said.

"But we couldn't under the constitution," Sog declared. Sog mentioned a figure of $100,000 as the amount of gross receipts of an unincorporated business which should pay a levy comparable to the corporate net income tax.
